Solutions Beyond the Obvious

TAX MANAGER

Join the Tronconi Segarra & Associates family! Do you want to join a firm of choice with over 140 professionals, paraprofessionals and administrative staff? Where many of your team members have been with the Firm for 10+ years, and one that provides work-life balance?

Are you looking for:

- Professional growth and development?
- Flexible, remote and alternative working arrangements?
- Competitive salaries & benefits, paid vacation and sick time, paid holidays and much more?
- A culture that prides itself on delivering high-quality professional services to clients while enabling associates to enjoy a work-life balance that so many desire?

Are you a person that enjoys:

- Planning, organizing and controlling multiple responsibilities & resources to achieve assignment objectives?
- Multi-tasking & managing a large volume of client engagements while maintaining efficiencies and high-quality client service?
- Communicating complex technical matters into an understandable format for clients?
- Directing & maintaining a motivated and empowered work team?
- Managing an assignment budget/profitability for projects and client engagements?
- Maintaining current knowledge of professional standards and obtaining a detailed understanding of emerging laws and regulations needed to teach/train associates?

Do you have:

- A Bachelor's Degree in accounting?
- 5+ years of experience in an accounting role?
- Your CPA license?
- Experience leading a team on multiple assignments?

Why Tronconi Segarra & Associates?

- Unique culture working closely with partners, principals & managers dedicated to mentoring associates.
- Ability to work on high-profile, nationally recognized client accounts.
- Exposure to a wide variety of challenging assignments.
- Ability to work on special projects and develop a practice area expertise.
- One-on-one career development mentoring program & ability to attend proprietary Tronconi Segarra & Associates Leadership Academy courses.

Your new colleagues (and friends!) at Tronconi Segarra & Associates are looking forward to meeting you!
